FALL 2018

Dear Friends, I hope you are having a good start to your fall. It is absolutely my favorite time of year because I still like going back to school shopping, buying new school supplies, and getting ready for what might come. The idea of possibilities still resonates with me. On that note, I have some exciting news to share.

HAIR STORIES IS GETTING PUBLISHED

Hair Stories, my project looking at the relationship that women have to their hair was completed in late 2017. For most of 2018, with the tireless efforts of Jonathan Blaustein and Caleb Cain Marcus we created a maquette that Damiani will be publishing. It will be out by Spring 2019. I am simply ecstatic! I invite you to follow the process of this book getting published on my Instagram feed as I go to Italy this fall.

I am so grateful for the support of Jonathan, Caleb, my friend and mentor Aline Smithson, and the incredible women who shared their stories by participating in this project. It would not have happened without them.
